

TAKING IT TO THE STREETS
Dementia:
Break the silence and shame

Nobody wants to have dementia
 ...but the stigma, shame and fear make it far worse – for everyone

Taking It to the Streets Campaign features a series of events around the world to talk about living with dementia and the many things that can help!

Joyous & relaxed music event

11am - 2pm Thursday 21st September

Swiss Cottage Library piano hall, NW3 3HA

Indian classical music
 Kiranpal Singh on Santoor with Tabla accompaniment

Jazz and bossa nova music
 Ela Southgate on voice & piano
 Matt Wall on guitar

Poetry
 Ronald Amanze
 reads 'I Found The Courage Within'

Hosted
 by Kate White & team for the Reimagining
 Dementia coalition

This is a free drop in event comprising music, poetry and discussion. It is supported by Camden Carers, Camden Libraries and the Reimagining Dementia coalition.

We want to highlight the need for community support and talk openly and with compassion about living with dementia. Come and meet people from organisations providing local support and learn more about what is available for you in Camden.

Everyone is welcome to relax and be themselves at this event.

Tea and cake will be provided!

